The new Ayrshire LEADER office is based on the Ground Floor of Liberator House next to the main terminal building at Glasgow Prestwick International Airport. The office is easily accessible by both private and public transport, which is both reliable and frequent. When you arrive at Liberator House please use the phone and call 4482.

Prestwick airport is situated close to Prestwick town centre, and is accessible from the A79.

by Car - We have secure free parking available to visitors attending meetings with LEADER. Simply take signpost on A79 for Gate 2 – Liberator House, follow road round to the right, at the barrier advise reception via the phone link that you have a meeting with LEADER, the barrier will rise and then drive straight down to the bottom car park (Please note that there is no designated visitor spaces and therefore parking may be limited at certain times of the day). Please refrain from using the main airport car parks as you will be responsible for any parking charges incurred.

Whether travelling from the north or the south, the best way to approach Prestwick is using the A77, from which there are turnings for the A79.

If you plan on driving to or from Prestwick Airport you can search the AA Route Planner for tailored directions.
